

25X1A

U-2 Pilot Resigns From His CIA Job

Washington, Nov. 2 (AP)—U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, released by the Soviet Union last February, has resigned from the Central Intelligence Agency, a CIA spokesman said tonight.

Powers resigned effective October 6, the spokesman said. "He had finished his work with us," he said.

Powers's U-2 reconnaissance plane crashed on a flight over Russia on May 1, 1960.

He was released in a swap for a Soviet spy, Rudolf Abel, last February 10.

The CIA said then Powers had lived up to the terms of his $2,500-a-month contract, and its director, John A. McCone, said Powers would be retained by the intelligence agency "for an indeterminate period."

The CIA spokesman said tonight he did not know Powers's whereabouts now, or anything of his plans for the future.